WILL HOLD UNION SERVICES SUNDAY EVENINGS DURING AUGUST

Pastors Arrange Schedule
of Meetings at Different Churches

ASSIGNMENT OF PASTORS MADE

At a recent meeting of the Charleroi Ministerial Association it was decided to hold union services on each Sunday evening during the month of August, the various pastors being assigned at such time as will not interfere with their usual summer vacations. The services as arranged will be as follows:

August 3rd—Christian church, Rev. John R. Burson, speaker.

August 10th—Lutheran church, Rev. G. A. Allison, speaker.

August 17th—Methodist church, Rev. C. G. Huffer, speaker.

August 24th—First Presbyterian church, Rev. Deitrick, speaker.

August 31st—Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, Rev. C. A. Keller, speaker.

All of these services will begin at 8 o'clock and it is believed they will prove to be very popular.

PARTY FOR RETURNED SOLDIER BOYS, THURSDAY

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry of McKean a venue Thursday evening in honor of Charles Henry and Chas. Celesty who have just returned from twelve months service in France. Fifty guests were present and spent the evening in games and music.

It is stated that under certain conditions of fermentation buttermilk develops an unlawful alcoholic content. If so, buttermilk must go, as otherwise our complete bone-dryness will be only a delusion.

ROAD TRAFFIC WAS BLOCKED BY SLIDE

A big landslide on the Bunola brick road near the old Howetipple, this side of Elizabethtown, has blocked that thoroughfare for the past two weeks. Hundreds of tons of earth and rock were loosened by the rains of the week of July 13 which caused the slip. A large force of men and teams have been on the job of moving it and it is hoped to have normal conditions restored by Monday next. The slide extended over the road and down on to the tracks of the P. & L. E. railroad covering both the north and southbound tracks, and at the time caused considerable annoyance to railroad traffic.

Local Hospital Gets Full Amount It Asked From State

Governor Sproul on Wednesday signed the various state appropriation bills which carry a total of over $102,000,000. The bills include the $18,000 having asked for $19,000 for the Charleroi hospital receiving the full amount it asked for, namely $8,000. This appropriation covers two years. The Brownsville General hospital was given $23,500, having asked for $25,000 and the Memorial hospital at Monongahela was given $18,000 having asked for $19,000. Governor Sproul is preparing a letter which will be sent to all institutions receiving state appropriations, urging the strictest economy for the next two years, as liberality in appropriations will not continue.

DISASTROUS FIRE ON LOCK FOUR HILL

The grocery store of Frank Brass, on Center avenue, Lock Hill, was completely destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning, entailing a loss of about $7,000, partially covered by insurance. Not only the building itself, but the contents as well were destroyed. How the fire originated is not known, the flames having gained such headway before being discovered that the family, which lived in the rear of the store had not time to save any of the contents. The building and stock were a complete loss. Mr. Brass carried insurance to the amount of $24,000 on the building and about the same amount on the contents. However, his loss will run a couple of thousand dollars more than that figure.

The fire became so dangerous that the Charleroi department was summoned, the alarm being turned in at 1:55 a. m. The company on its arrival could only assist in drowning out the fire, as the building was beyond being saved when they reached the scene.

On the way to the fire a slight accident happened to the truck while going up Lock Hill. The driver had trouble in shifting gears and before he could negotiate the change the truck started back down the hill, the brakes failing to hold. In coming back it ran into a car driven by William Risbeck of Donora the auto having the windshield, an axle and a wheel broken in the mix-up. The rear fenders of the truck were slightly damaged, as well as the rear step on the fire machine.

SUGAR SITUATION VERY ACUTE DUE TO A TEMPORARY SHORTAGE

SIMILARITY OF NAMES CAUSES A MISTAKE

In the issue of the Mail of Thursday it was stated that Robert S. McMahan of Monongahela had been held for action by the grand jury following the death of Fred Corlier, a Trotter, Fayette county. The name of the young man who is unfortunately implicated is Raymond McMahan and not Robert, as it was stated. Robert McMahan is a brother of Mrs. Clyde Wickerham and is still in the service of the United States, being stationed at Camp Lee. It is understood that Raymond McMahan will be released on bail.

BELLEVERNON BRIDGE TO BE REPAINTED

At a joint meeting of the commissioners of Washington and Fayette counties and the deputy controllers of the two counties held at Uniontown on Tuesday, the contract for painting the Belle Vernon Bridge was let to Patridis & Co., of Pittsburg, for $2,245. The county catches up with domestic orders, and furnishes the paint, which will come from the Capitol Paint & Varnish company of Washington. There was one other bid from Andrews Brothers of Pittsburg, who asked $3,125.

Present at the meeting were Commissioners George Hoover and George Hibbs, of Fayette county. Deputy Controller Hoston and Solicitor Phillips of Fayette county, and County Commissioners Watson, Hill and Barnum of Washington county and Deputy Controller R. B. Drum and Engineer George Chaney.

HAS RE-ENLISTED FOR ARMY MOTOR SERVICE

Corporal Russell A. Lewis, a former member of the 415th Motor Transport Corps, arrived home Wednesday night, having been discharged from the service. Corporal Lewis has re-enlisted in the service, and after spending one month at home will go to Camp Holabird, Md., for one year's training in a motor instruction school.

STRONG TEAM IS SATURDAY ATTRACTION

The S. J. Grenet team of North Side, Pittsburg, will be the attraction at the local ball park tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The Charleroi team is going fine just now and they should have the support of all. The Grenet team is a strong one, and the game should prove to be highly interesting. This evening the California team will play a twilight game with the locals.

Government puts Ban on Ex- port Trade Until Condi- tions are Relieved

BROKERS QUOTING 12C PER LB.

The sugar question is again to the front, and people are compelled to pay a higher price during the summer season, because of a temporary shortage due to present conditions. These conditions have been brought about by large quantities of sugar being exported, for which the government had up until a few days ago given priority orders. This resulted in the refiners being unable to take care of the domestic trade, which has caused a temporary shortage. As a consequence brokers are taking advantage of the situation, and today grocers are asked to pay the highest price of the year, 12 cents wholesale. They had prior to this time been paying from 9.90 to 11.40 for sugar, but it is possible the higher price will have to be paid in a very short time. However, it is said the government has directed a cessation of the export trade for such a time as will allow the refiners to catch up with domestic orders, and if this is done there is also a possibility of sugar coming down or at least not advancing beyond present figures.

Another element which has added to the scarcity for the domestic consumer is the immense demands being made by the soft drink business. Since the first of July, when wartime prohibition began, the soft drink business has increased at an enormous rate. As a consequence the manufacturers are using largely increased amounts of sugar, and this increased demand has served to make the temporary shortage a little more acute than it would be under ordinary circumstances. However, with the government prohibition on exports for a few days, local grocers hope to see prices remain at a figure not above those which have heretofore prevailed.

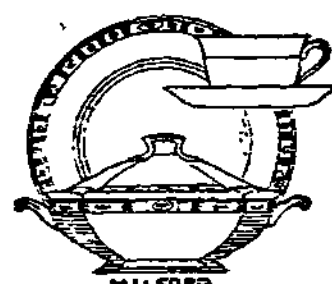

PAGE OFFICIALS INSPECT PROPERTY

Some of the officials of the Page Steel and Wire company were in Elizabethtown last week, looking over the old safe works property in that town. One of the visitors is said to have stated that if they could secure the property they would have from 100 to 125 men at work there without all. The Grenet team is a strong one, and the game should prove to be highly interesting. This evening the California team will play a twilight game with the locals.

FINDING A REMEDY

Down in Donora attention has been called by the public press to a situation which has affected the prices of foodstuffs and which has served to increase them to a point where purchase price has become quite burdensome. The charge is openly and publicly made that local dealers with various kinds of produce were permitted to stand on the sidewalks of the railroad yard in that town until it rotted, although local produce dealers had purchased the carload and had it delivered to that point. The rotting of the vegetables and fruits which this car contained involved a loss, not only in a financial way to the owners, but to the people of the community, who would have purchased it had the opportunity been given.

The charge is further made that this car was permitted, deliberately, to remain unloaded and the contents to rot, in order to keep up the local price of produce. How true this charge is we do not know, but this is not the first time a similar charge has been made against the produce trade. Not alone car loads of perishable stuff, but entire apple orchards, fields of potatoes and other vegetables, bought before they were picked or harvested and all of them allowed to rot as they stood, rather than allow them to be placed on the market where they might have reduced prices.

Nature has been lavish in the production of foodstuffs, but from the prices charged one might assume that a famine prevailed in the land. The products of the fields and the orchards were never more generous, but for some peculiar reason the public is compelled to pay the limit in prices. It is certainly time something was being done to keep the price of necessities within the reach of the wage-earner, a condition that does not exist today.

FIGHTING FOR AMERICANISM

The American Legion, the new organization of veterans of the great war, has begun its public service most auspiciously with a plan for a patriotic campaign against the "Reds."

There are a number of projects with this commendable and timely object, but none which will have the effect of that of the Legion. Where a man who has worn the khaki or blue in the service of the republic speaks on Americanism and patriotism it is going to count. The American people have reason to hold their soldiers and sailors in esteem. We are proud of their deeds and their character, and proud with good reason. Whether they had the privilege of getting to the firing line or were only ready and waiting, we know they were true blue Americans, men of all races and creeds, but loyal as one man to the flag and what it stands for.

We hope the Legion's speaking campaign will spread over all the country and especially attack those strong hosts of foreign Jews which have held out against Americanism. The press should back the Legion with its full strength and speed of influence. The forces of disintegration are stronger than usual in all civilization. They are comparatively weaker in our country than in the countries stricken by war, but they are with us, and the American Legion is the best of all agencies to defeat them.

Joffre not only rode ahead of Foch in the great Bastille day procession but was yielded the precedence in another particular. "Kiss her," said Joffre to Foch, when a little girl who was to make a speech forgot her lines and began to cry. "No," said the generalissimo to the hero of the Marne, "the honor is yours: you kiss her." And "Papa" Joffre did so.

There is no need of a new city called "Geopolis" to commemorate the war. Already there are more than enough scars on cities, lands and men to keep the memory of the war alive, to say nothing of records brimmed with horrors.

Marine Tips.

Sailors have a curious way of knowing when their ship is approaching land. They go to mother nature for their knowledge. If you are on the ship they may ask you to feel the deck, which is wet with dew. Even though the stars are shining clearly,
and the sea absolutely smooth, the deck seems as though water had been poured across it. The sailor will then inform you that dew is never to be found more than thirty miles from land, so the dew is a good prophet.

Insects in Glaciers.

Few people know that in the glaciers of the western national parks
live several species of minute insects, topping about like tiny fleas. They are harder to see than the so-called sand fleas of the seashore, because much smaller. Slender, dark brown worms live in countless millions in the surface ice. Microscopic, rose-colored plants also thrive in such vast numbers that they tint the surface here
and there.

Why condemn an individual or institution before you hear both sides?
Does a jury convict or a judge sentence a prisoner before the evidence is heard?

Sand Dunes From the Sea.

One of the most interesting and remarkable of the many regions for the observation of sand dunes lies between Bordeaux and Bayonne in Gascony.
The sea here throws every year upon the beach, along a line of 100 miles in length, some 5,000,000 cubic yards of sand. The prevailing westerly winds continue picking up the surface particles from the westward slope, where they are again deposited, and the entire ridge by this means alone moves gradually inward. In the course of years there has thus been formed a complex system of dunes; all approximately parallel with the coast and with one another and of altitudes up to 250 feet. These are marching steadily inward at a rate of from three to six feet a year, whole villages having sometimes been torn down to prevent burial and rebuilt at a distance.

Pretty Bluebird Legend.

"The Seminole Indians have a pretty legend concerning the bluebird." L. B. Brownell writes in a communication contained in the department "On Nature's Trail," in Boys' Life. "They will tell you that one day the male bird flew so high that he rubbed his back against the sky and some of the blue rubbed off and stained his coat. Upon his return to earth his wife so admired the new color of his coat that she determined to have one of the same color for herself. Accordingly, the next day she set off, but the morning proved to be overcast, the color that she was able to obtain was not nearly so brilliant as was that of her husband. So to this day she must go about clad in a coat much less gaily colored than his."
